In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992 Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax: Call: (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

CASA Academy is an equal opportunity provider.

In accordance with Arizona law (ARS 15-183F), CASA Academy keeps on file the resumes of all current and former employees who provide instruction to pupils at the charter school. Resumes include an individual's educational and teaching background and experience in a particular academic content subject area. CASA Academy informs parents and guardians of the availability of the resume information and makes the resume information available for inspection on request of parents and guardians of pupils enrolled at the charter school. This subsection does not require any charter school to release personally identifiable information in relation to any teacher or employee, including the teacher or employee's address, salary, social security number or telephone number.

In accordance with National School Lunch Program regulations, parents are required to provide new yearly income information each year if they want to participate in the National School Lunch Program. This information will be distributed starting on July 2nd, 2018. It is the parent's responsibility to submit this information between July 2nd, 2018 and within 30 days of the first day of school for the 2018-2019 school year if they wish to verify their eligibility for free or reduced meals. CASA scholars will have 30 days after the first day of school to correctly submit an application that will retain their eligibility status (reduced or free lunch); if an application supporting eligibility status is not submitted within 30 days of the first day of school, the scholar will automatically move to paid lunch until an application is submitted.
